REPORTING IS THE FIRST STEP

How to report a sexual assault

- Anytime another youth sexually touches the sexual parts of your body, forces you to touch the sexual parts of their body, has sex with you without your consent, or forces you to have sex with someone else without your consent, it is against the law.
- Anytime a staff member makes sexual advances or comments, sexually touches you, or has sex with you, it is against the law. Even if you wanted or invited it, the staff person is not allowed to respond. This does not include routine searches or touching for certain medical procedures.
- Anytime you sexually touch a staff member or force them to touch you, it is against the law.
- Consensual sexual conduct is prohibited while living at the Juvenile Center.

Sexually abusive conduct includes:

- Rape.
- Someone forcing you to have sex with them or another person to repay a debt.
- Someone offering you protection in exchange for sex.
- A staff person offering you a privilege or a favor in exchange for sex.
- Fondling, exposing genitals.
- Inappropriate sexual comments.

It is NOT YOUR FAULT if you were sexually assaulted.

How to prevent sexual assault

- Anyone offering you favors, lending you things, or providing you protection, may be setting you up for an assault or targeting you as a potential victim. DON'T DO IT!
- Be aware of situations that make you feel uncomfortable. Trust your instincts. If it feels wrong, leave or call out for a staff member. It's your right to say "NO," "STOP IT," or "DON'T TOUCH ME!"
- If you or someone else is being pressured for sex, tell a staff member immediately. You don't need to wait for an assault to happen to ask for help.
- Be aware of areas where it may be hard to be seen by staff or where you would have trouble getting help if you needed it.
- Stay out of other people's rooms and keep them out of yours.
- Be alert — contraband such as drugs and alcohol will make it hard for you to stay alert and make decisions.
