

Circle Pines & Lexington

- Off-street bike paths and sidewalks connect many destinations in the area.
- 95th Avenue Park and Ride is just west across 35W, with all-day express bus trips to downtown and the U of M.
- Transit Link service for first and last-mile transit use.
- Bikes, e-bikes and e-scooters can take advantage of bike trails and multi-use trails.

Lino Lakes and Centerville make up the area surrounding the Rice Creek Chain of Lakes Park Preserve. This beautiful area is full of trails for walking and biking, outdoor recreation for all four seasons, and the charm of a community that sits where suburban meets rural.

While Lino Lakes and Centerville are largely communities built around driving, commuters can still take advantage of some of the region's great transportation options, like park and ride facilities and organizing a carpool/vanpool.

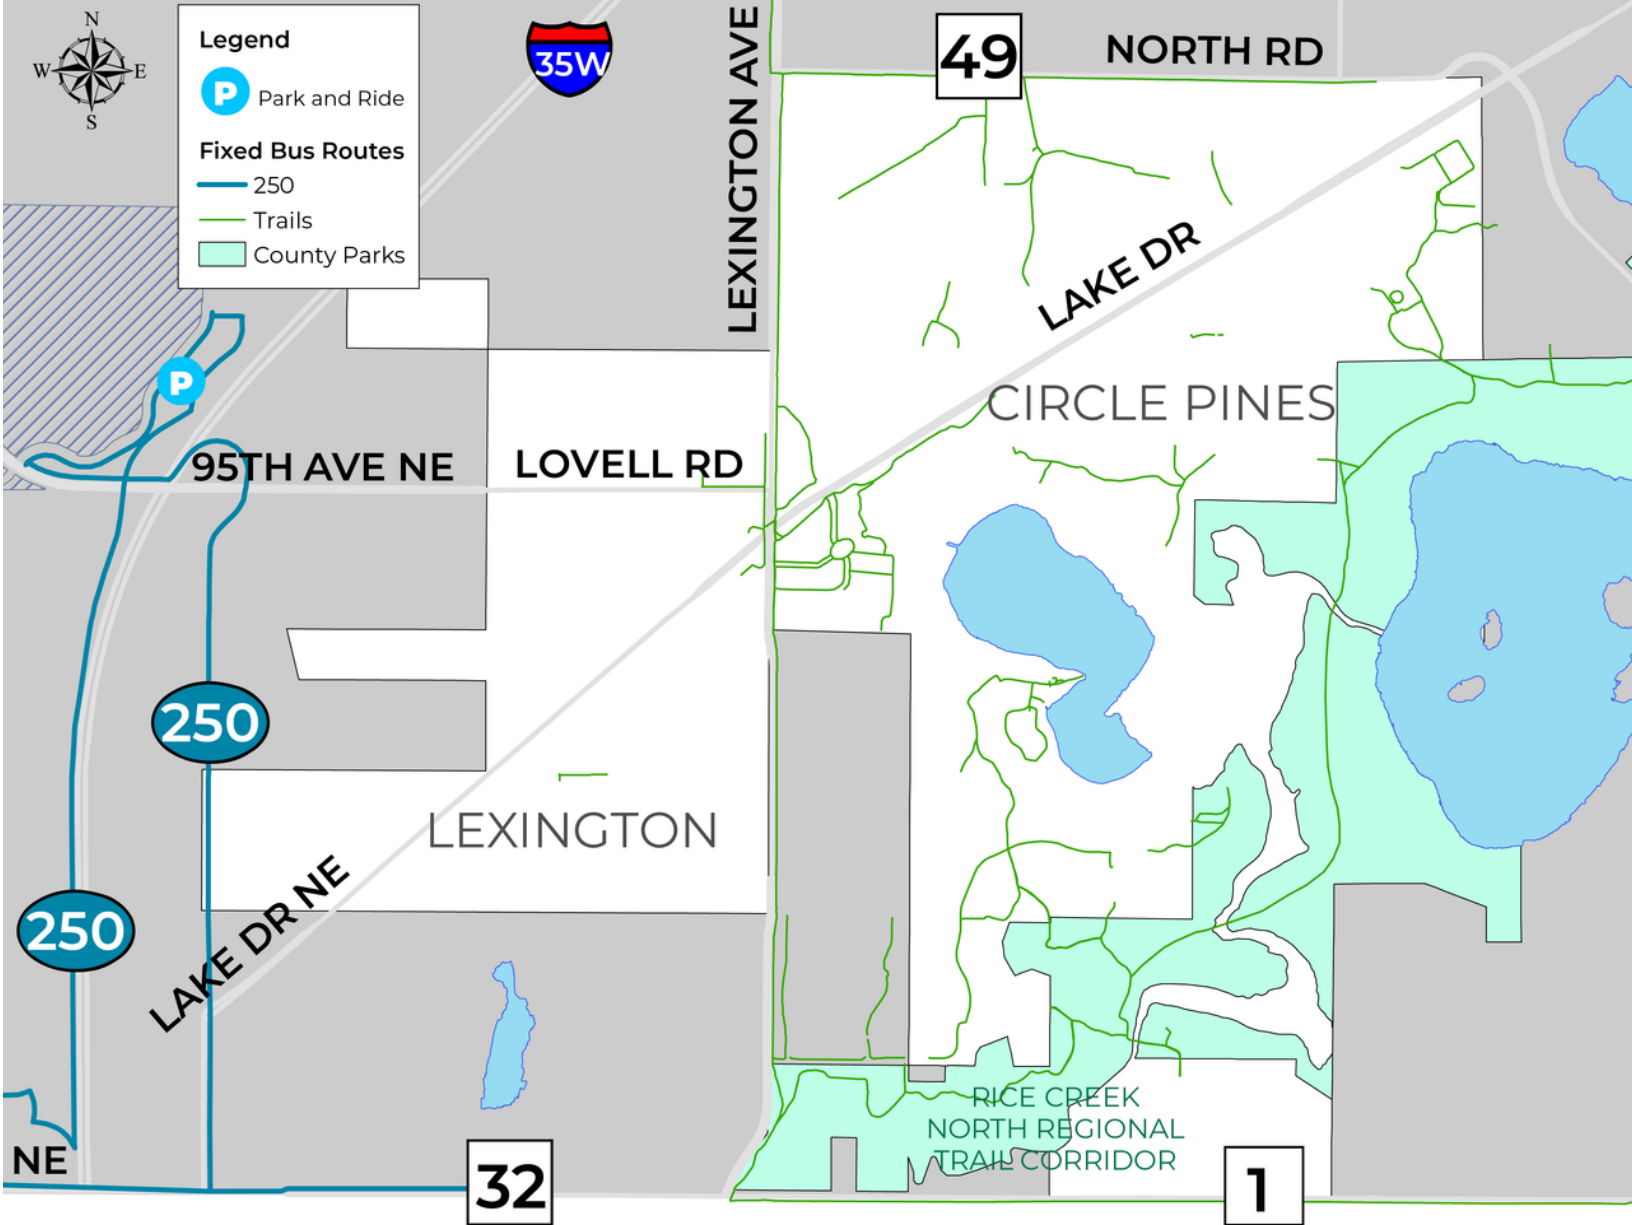

Example Commutes

-  Co Rd 14 & 35W P&R to Downtown Saint Paul
Route 275 □ Mears Park - 36 minutes
-  95th Ave P&R to University of Minnesota
Route 252 □ East Bank Station - 27 minutes
-  95th Ave P&R to Downtown Minneapolis
Route 250 □ Nicollet Mall Station - 32 minutes

Transit Link is the region's dial-a-ride service that is used for areas without fixed-route buses and will typically connect customers to fixed route services to their destination. Call 763-324-3250 to get started.

Metro Mobility is a paratransit service specifically for certified riders with disabilities or health issues that offers door-to-door rides for any reason. Call 651-602-1111 to get started.

Park & Ride

Express bus to downtown St. Paul, nearby P&R to Minneapolis, U of M

Just across 35W is the 95th Avenue park and ride, commuters can catch Route 250 for an express ride to downtown Minneapolis or Route 252 for the only direct transit route to the U of M from Anoka County.

North of the area is the Co Rd 14 & 35W park and ride, which has one route, 275, which goes between Lino Lakes and downtown St. Paul.

Carpooling

Take advantage of EZPass lanes and split fuel costs

Buses nearby are designed for commutes in and out of downtown—but this doesn't work for everyone. A carpool might work for you.

Carpools and vanpools (where the vehicle is provided) can be started on your own, but you can find one now by registering online at: metrotransit.org/carpool-vanpool.
