About Us

Serving both males and females 10 to 18 years of age, the East Central Regional Juvenile Center (RJC) offers short term programming with three separate groups. The all male detention group consists of youth awaiting court hearings and/or waiting to go to their next placement. The all female program group consists of youth awaiting court hearings, placement, or who have been adjudicated and are completing court ordered programs. The third all male program group consists of adjudicated youth completing court ordered programs.
